

5

Things You Need

to know

About Emerging Needs at CPTC Foundation

What is the Emerging Needs fund?

- 90.7% Program Support
- 8.7% Administrative
- .6% Fundraising

Directed by the volunteer board of directors towards scholarships, emergency assistance, community involvement - the area of greatest need.

NOTE: No salaries are paid from this fund.

01.

Community Involvement

Supports staff and faculty in outreach efforts within the local community along with recruiting of prospective future students to CPTC.

02.

Staff/Faculty Development

Providing faculty/staff with resources to participate in professional development activities. that keep them industry current and enrich the classroom.

03.

Scholarships

Scholarships enable students to focus on education by lessening their financial burden. Merit-based and competitive, 3.0 GPA or greater at all time.

- ★ General Scholarships
- ★ Program Specific Scholarships
- ★ Endowed Scholarships

04.

Emergency Assistance

Keeping students in school through emergency assistance with housing, utilities, medical, transportation, etc.

HOUSING UTILITIES MEDICAL

05.

Academic Program Enhancement

Enhancements that provide specialized support to individual classrooms. These enhancements have included classroom teaching aides, student field trip entrance fees, licenses, etc.

WEBSITE

www.cptc.edu/foundation

CREATED BY

Clover Park Technical College Foundation

CPTC Foundation

4500 Steilacoom Blvd SW

Lakewood, WA 98499

253-589-6082

foundation@cptc.edu

